RELIEF WORK GREATLY CUT BY THE STATE

Average $20 Per Month Order Is Received Here

OTHER ROAD FUND

Panhandle Again Seeks To Get Share for Highways

Panhandle relief work was greatly handicapped again when orders were issued that the maximum average should not be more than $20 per month for work, or $10 per month for direct aid.

This means that the work on Goodnight Trail will be greatly handicapped owing to the reduced amount which may be spent for labor. It is believed that the caliche work could be finished in a month, but since this reduction has been made, it will likely take a considerable much longer time.

The State Relief Commission has finally acknowledged the $8,900,000 special fund which was allotted to the Panhandle last September, but instead of giving this money to this section, it is now being distributed over the 190 counties which are now in the drouth relief territory of Texas. This means that practically no more road work will be made possible in the Panhandle through the relief office.

An allotment of $12,000,000 to the State Highway Comission has been made by the federal government for state highways and first primary roads. A meeting was called in Amarillo Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing to send a large delegation to Austin on July 30th for the purpose of asking a large percent of this fund for the Panhandle. 40% of the unfinished and unconnected highways of the state are located in the Panhandle, according to reports of the engineers. At least 40% of this new fund should be authorized for this section in order to complete the system. Clyde Warwick represented Randall county in the meeting Saturday.

Every county in the 31st senatorial district was urged to send one or more men to Austin on July 30 in order to present the facts of conditions to the Highway Commission. Unless a lrage part of this money comes to the original drouth territory, it is likely that none of the caliche base highways will be topped, and as a result most of the caliche will blow away during the coming year.

$16,449,281 Bet On Horse Races, Says Statement

An appeal to the voters of Texas was published in Tuesday's daily papers by 15 leading Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Christian pastors for the repeal of the horse race bill. The report was published by the state commission showing that $16,449,281 had been bet on horse races since the bill was passed. Of this large amount of money, only $330,604.55 was returned in taxes to the state.

The committee asked for the election of state officials who will repeal this evil.

Clint Small is the only candidate for Governor who opposes legalized horse race betting.

Tyler Man Says Clint Small in Second Primary

TYLER, July 14.—Sentiment for Senator Clint Small's candidacy for governor is sweeping East Texas and the West Texan has made remarkable gains in the eastern section the last few weeks, according to Carl Estes, Tyler publisher.

"I am supporting James V. Allred for governor," Mr. Estes said, "but I predict that Clint Small and Allred will be in the run-off. I base my estimates of Small's strength in East Texas on a trip from the Red River to the Sabine made in the last 10 days."

No Election Returns From State This Year

For the first time in 20 years the News will not receive election returns from the state races to post on the bulletin board. The Texas Election Bureau has prohibited the posting of bulletins, and announcing them in any way during Saturday night, excepting through special and regular editions of the newspapers.

It costs the newspapers of Texas many thousands of dollars to compile these returns. In the past the radio stations have copied the returns from the newspaper bulletin boards and broadcast the results. This will not be possible this year.

The News does not believe that the cost of printing a special edition about midnight would be justified in view of the cost — approximately $100. If the state candidates are running very close, no definite conclusions could be reached at that time.

The county results will be posted as in the past. All election judges are asked to report their returns by telephone as soon as their box is completed.

Ben F. Berkeley Visited Here In Interest Campaign

BEN F. BERKELEY

Former Senator Ben F. Berkeley of Alpine was here Monday in the interest of his candidacy for Lieutenant Governor. "If West Texas will stay with me, I shall go into the second primary," stated Senator Berkeley.

B. A. Witherspoon Announces Office Justice of Peace

B. A. Witherspoon has authorized the News to make his announcement as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1.

Mr. Witherspoon served ten years as City Marshal at Hereford, which gave him experience in law enforcement in all of the courts of that county. He has served four years as Justice of the Peace in Canyon.

"I believe in law enforcement, and have been fair and conscientious in all cases tried in my court," stated Mr. Witherspoon. "I have been absolutely impersonal in the enforcement of the law. I have not attempted to persecute any person coming into my court, but to give all a just, fair and impartial hearing."

In referring to his record, Mr. Witherspoon points to his service in both Hereford and Canyon as an inforcement officer.

"This is a personal message to every voter, and an invitation to those living in Precinct No. 1 to support and vote for me," stated Mr. Witherspoon. "I am too busy making a living to see each and every voter. If I am elected, I shall do my best to enforce the laws, just as the record shows that I have in the past."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Bryan of Denton arrived Saturday. Mr. Bryan will teach in W. T. while C. W. Batchelder and family are visiting in the east.

SECOND PERIOD SUMMER TERM STARTS W. T.

105 New Students Enter For Work of Six Weeks

700 ARE ENROLLED

Enrolment to Continue During the Coming Week

With the enrollment period for the second six-weeks term only one-half over, 105 new students have entered college and more than 700 have made their programs and are already attending classes. Although it is too early to predict the exact attendance for the second term, indications are that the enrollment will be of normal size, considering the conditions which prevail over the entire territory.

Many of the students who withdrew last Saturday did so in order to begin their teaching in schools in the cotton districts, most of which open late in July or by the first of August. A large number of these teachers will be back late in September for the first split-semester of the regular school year.

Motorcade to All Panhandle Sections In Small Interest

Panhandle supporters of Clint Small for Governor are making trips into every section of the Panhandle, and speakers are attending every political meeting in this section.

Canyon will be visited Friday afternoon from 5:30 until 6:15. This group will leave Amarillo this morning at 7:00 o'clock and will make a two day trip, visiting twelve towns today and ten towns tomorrow. Clyde Warwick will make the trip as one of the speakers in the interest of Senator Small.

Increasing interest is being shown all over the Panhandle in the candidacy of Senator Small. Sentiment is rapidly crystallizing in his campaign, just as it is in every section of East and South Texas.

4,000 CATTLE BOUGHT HERE BY COMMITTEE

Hope to Cover County In Buying This Week

ANOTHER CANVASS

Working Southern Section of County First Time

Practically 4,000 head of cattle have been bought in Randall county under the emergency drouth program states Clyde McElroy, chairman of the local committee.

Saturday afternoon was set aside for "town cows" and 110 head were brought to the stock pens by the owners.

Mr. McElroy states that the buying crew is working in the south part of the county this week. He hopes that the county will be covered for the first time during the coming week. After going over the county once, the committee will start on the second round owing to the fact that many farmers are becoming alarmed at the continued drouth and wish to make a second sale to the government.

The buying program is working very smoothly and the stock is being cared for as rapidly as it is signed up and inspected. The railroad has been able to handle the shipments as rapidly as they are gathered at the stockpens.

No time limit has been placed on the buying, but farmers are urged to see the committee as soon as possible if they wish to dispose of their surplus stock.

Many Applications Received for Feed and Seed Loans

Randall county farmers are making applications for seed and feed loans in large numbers.

The office was opened Wednesday at the Chamber of Commerce room at the court house with Mrs. James Cole in charge of the work. W. C. Black is chairman of the local committee which is accepting the loans.

An extension of time has been granted for seed wheat loans, but it is believed that the government will require all seed loans to be filed by about the first of August. Those farmers who will need loans on planting wheat should make application during the month of July.

A large number of applications have been taken for feed loans to carry the stock until rain relieves the drouth. These applications will be received to care for cattle, horses, mules, hogs, sheep and poultry, and are based upon the monthly needs of the farmers. No mortgage is neded in securing the feed loans.

Hog Contracts Are Signed Up Tuesday And Wednesday

Signing of the Corn-Hog control contracts was completed yesterday. The county was divided into two districts, one group of farmers coming in Tuesday and the other one yesterday to complete the signing of contracts.

The contracts will now go to the state committee where they will be checked by this authorized body. In case of errors those contracts affected will be returned here for correction, but those which are found to be correct under the specification of the agricultural department will be forwarded on to Washington.

While no promise has been made as to the time necessary for checks to be returned to the farmers, it was recently estimated from Washington that about one month would be necessary for the state committee and the department at Washington to act upon the contracts.

The work has been delayed while the state committee was deciding upon the quota for Randall county.

Dr. C. A. Pierle and Dr. S. L. Ingham were in Amarillo Tuesday night conferring with dentists and chemists concerning the brown tooth stain of the Panhandle.

Tom Love Comes Out in Favor Clint Small

Thomas B. Love sent the following wire to Senator Clint C. Small:

"Hon. Clint C. Small, Jacksonville: I heard your great speech at Comanche last night and I am for you for governor. In these times when some candidates for high office are bidding against each other for the criminal vote and others are vying with each other in manifesting their tongue-tied indifference to the welter of impudent and insolent lawlessness now manifest in Texas, your declaration of war by direct action against crime is heartening and refreshing.

"We may differ on prohibition. I am against both submission and appeal, but I know you will agree that the Senators and Representatives ought to vote on submission in accordance with the wishes of the people they respectively represent and the people of Texas can be depended on to settle the question of prohibition and settle it right as they did yesterday in Mississippi, and a week or so ago in North Dakota. Regards.

"THOMAS B. LOVE."

The summer seniors are older than those in the spring class, only 35 of the 106 being inexperienced teachers. The average for the group is almost 8 years of teaching experience each; some have taught as much at 20 years.

400 MEN ARE COMING PALO DURO CAMP

Hereford Unit Will Be Mobilized at Park Camp

WORKING ON DAM

Both Companies Are Being Filled to Full Number

About 400 men to increase the enrollment of the two companies at the Palo Duro State Park, and to form the new CCC company to be located at Hereford are arriving here. Large daily consignments will arrive daily until the end of the week when the companies will be filled.

Captain Cox of Houston is here to take charge of the new company. Howard Trigg has been named superintendent of the new Hereford State Park. The company will remain here for about 10 days before being transferred to Hereford. Barracks will be built at Hereford while the men occupy the ones at the Palo Duro.

Nothing definite has been heard as to the report that the companies would be increased to 250 men. It is now believed that this order will not be effective.

Major E. A. Kingsley states that work has been greatly interferred with during the period of re-enlistment, but should be underway again and everything running smoothly by the first of next week.

Work has been continued on construction of the dam, which has been held up since April owing to the lack of materials.

Baptist Pastor Introduces Small at Texarkana Meet

Senator Clint Small was indorsed as the candidate for the people who believe in law enforcement and as the man deserving the support of the moral people who are against liquor and gambling by Dr. M. T. Andrews, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Texarkana, who introduced Small to an audience which filled the municipal auditorium and another which gathered around the loud speaker on the lawn.

Dr. Andrews praised Small's courage in opposing gambling and betting on races and for having the courage to declare himself on moral issues. Small flayed Attorney General Allred for condoning gambling and open saloons, declaring Allred's San Antonio headquarters were right next to an elaborate saloon. He poked fun at Tom F. Hunter, saying he had just realized what the "F" initial of Hunter's name stood for when he read the tom-foolery in Hunter's platform.

PANHANDLE MEMBER 1933 PRESS ASSOCIATION

CLINT SMALL A WINNER

Clint Small will go into the second primary, according to information which comes from reliable sources down state. These sources are not alone from friends of Small, but from close political observers who know the trend of affairs.

Carl Estes of Tyler announced Friday that the second primary would be between Allred and Small. Estes is supporting Allred.

T. H. McGregor, a staunch Ferguson supporter, announced in Ft. Worth Saturday night that it looked like McDonald and Small.

Tom Love announced Thursday that he would support Clint Small. There never has been a man in the senate who fought West Texas so hard as did Tom Love. He was bitterly opposed to Clint Small on all of the West Texas legislation. But he comes to Small because of the sincerity and honesty of Clint Small in the legislation which he presented. The fight of Clint Small on the race horse and other gambling was highly praised by Tom Love.

In checking up the following of Clint Small, more newspapers are supporting him than any other candidate for governor.

An ex-governor announced that while he was making no choice in the first primary that if Clint Small was successful in the first primary, he would support Small in August.

The only real opposition to Small over the state is a handful of disgruntled petty politicians in Amarillo who have not been able to handle Clint Small to their own advantage. They are the group who have put out all of the vile propaganda regarding his votes while in the Senate, and who are doing everything they can against him. They are attempting to poison the minds of Panhandle voters against the man who has done more for this section than any one man in the Panhandle.

The News asks the voters to be fair and judge whether or not Clint Small has not served the Panhandle and the State of Texas efficiently and effectively.

Here are a few of the outstanding accomplishments of Clint Small:

He saved the West Texas State Teachers College from being wrecked during the so-called economy fight in the last session of the legislature.

He saved the land of 600 home owners in the Panhandle when crooked Austin lawyers were trying to steal it.

He successfully fought the $300,000,000 state road bond issue, and wrote the substitute bill which takes 1 cent of the gasoline tax to pay off the highway bonds. That means a saving of $15,000 annually to Randall county.

He successfully fought the relocation of the penitentiary system at an expense of $15,000,000, and wrote the bill which rehabitulated the present system at a very small cost to the state.

He passed through the Senate the appropriation bill for the Museum building—which is the last college building to be erected on a college campus in Texas under state appropriation.

He has written a large part of the oil and gas laws on the statute books. The attorney general and railroad commission are vested with ample authority to stop "hot" oil if they carried out the provisions of the laws.

He passed the law which made possible the purchase of the land for the Palo Duro State Park.

He defeated the Ferguson plan of issuing all of the $20,000,000 relief bonds at one time and turning the distribution of it over to the present administration.

He is responsible for the gasoline refund bill, which gives back the farmers of Texas annually $3,000,000 in gasoline tax for fuel used in their tractors.

He has been a consistent friend of education, both the common schools, and the colleges.

He is the only man in the race who has ever done one single thing for the upbuilding of Canyon and Randall county, and the only one who will be in position to do anything for us in the future regardless of this race. He will continue to serve as our Senator if not elected Governor.

He is the only man from the Panhandle who has ever had a chance to be Governor, and likely the only man for years to come who can interest voters down state to elect him to that great office.

He is the only man in the race who has nerve enough to come out against the open saloon and the open gambling joints. By their silence the others are approving of the worst evil that exists in Texas today.

Panhandle voters should be fair with Clint Small. He is our neighbor and friend. He has been working diligently for the upbuilding of this great section.

There are a few who do not approve of some of the 10,000 votes which is cast in the Senate. It is ridiculous to think that even Senator Small is pleased with all of them in the light of changing times, and changing conditions.

Scores of other progressive bills could be added to the above list, which are of direct interest and benefit to the Panhandle.

Please draw up a balance sheet. Place on one side the above items to the credit of Clint Small, and then write on the other side the reason why you should vote against him.

The voters who wish to be honest in the matter will find that the balance is entirely in favor of Clint Small.

As the News stated several weeks ago in starting the discussion of candidates for Governor, we are not mad at any of them; we are not fighting any of them; we are simply showing the people why they should vote for Clint Small rather than support some other candidate who is not a resident of the Panhandle, and who has never done a single thing for this section, and will probably do as little as they can if elected.

Let's honor the man who has worked so untiringly for the Panhandle all these years, and who is better equipped and prepared for this office than any candidate in this campaign.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

The first primary will be held on July 28th. The News has refrained from saying much about the various races, excepting that for Governor. Many voters have asked the opinion of The News privately regarding state candidates, and we have cheerfully given the information. We have certain choices in the campaign, and present them today hoping that many voters may benefit from the selection we have made.

We shall support Tom Connally for United States Senator. Guy Fisher is not in the running. Jos. W. Bailey lacks a lot of having the ability of his father. Connally has rendered a noteable service to Texas. We expect this race may be rather close owing to the fact that Connally has stayed in Washington looking after the people's business, while Bailey has been in Texas campaigning consistently. So far as real ability is concerned, if the people could forget their prejudices, Connally would win by a large vote.

We support our friend Clint C. Small for Governor. Indications the past week are that Allred will lead the ticket with Small second, Hunter and McDonald trailing in third and fourth places. Witt has failed to develop much of a statewide following. Hughes has failed to register, and Russell is just another good man who also ran.

We have four good personal friends running for Lieutenant Governor, but we shall support Walter Woodul. Woodul has always stood by West Texas and the educational program of the state. He is a product of Prof. T. M. Clark's training, and has a warm place in the hearts of all who have come in contact with Prof. Clark. He is a highly capable man, with proper experience to make a good man in the place. John Hornsby of Austin, Joe Moore of Hunt county and Ben Berkeley of Brewster are good men, but not of the even executive temperament as Woodul. R. M. Johnson of Anderson and J. P. Rogers of Harris are both former members of the House.

For attorney general, we shall support Walter Woodward of Coleman, because he is a West Texan, and qualified for the job. William McCraw of Dallas is making an intensive campaign, and from reports has gained much ground in the past month. Clyde E. Smith is not considered as having any weight in this campaign.

For State Comptroller we shall support George H. Sheppard for re-election. He is a West Texas man, has made a great success of his job, attending strictly to business, and has made every effort to collect the taxes which are due the state. The other three candidates are unknown quantities, and untried in state affairs.

For Treasurer we shall support Charley Lockhart for re-election. the name of "George B. Terrell" appears as a candidate. This is a fellow by the name of Baker who had his name changed by court order for the purpose of running for the office in the hope that the magic name of Terrell would get him a job. Kay Griffin is unknown, and Dennis Waller announced for the office after his brother, who had announced as a candidate, was shot and killed.

For Commissioner of Agriculture, J. E. McDonald is running for re-election. He is a good man, but not brilliant; Conley is unknown; Davis is a chronic office seeker; K. Terrell is a farmer in Floyd county who likewise is capitalizing upon the Terrell name.

If the matter of sticking up campaign cards counts, Walter E. Jones should run a good race for Commissioner of the General Land office. Mr. Jones has literally plastered down the state with his cards, having up more cards than any candidate for Governor. The office is too important to be turned over to a novice. J. H. Walker was first assistant before being appointed as Commissioner. This is not a political job. The office handles millions of dollars, and needs an experienced man.

We are more upset about the office of Railroad Commissioner than any state office. Lon A. Smith is up for re-election. He is a professional office holder, who plays petty politics all of the time, without reference to the good of his state or the office he holds. The Railroad Commission in dealing with the gas and oil business has badly bungled its job, and no doubt the next session of the legislature will take this power away from this commission. We cannot support Lon Smith upon his past record; we cannot support W. Gregory Hatcher, who is another chronic office seeker; John Pundt was Ferguson's right hand man as disclosed by the investigation of the last session of the legislature, handling the funds of Ferguson's newspaper, which eliminates him; James L. McNees is a light weight. This leaves H. O. Johnson of Harris, who comes with good recommendations. This is probably the most important job in the state, and it is a shame that better qualified men have not announced for it. Lon Smith will likely be re-elected as he has the powerful backing of this big department, without strong men opposing him.

We shall support John H. Sharp for associate justice of the Supreme Court. Judge Sharp is serving on the commission of this court, knows the work thoroughly, and is the best qualified lawyer in the race. It is to be regretted that important judicial posts like the sopreme court must be filled from a political standpoint. The average voter has no opportunity to really ascertain the qualifications of the candidates.

The voters have had an opportunity to know the district and county candidates, and to study their qualifications.

The main thing about the primary is that every voter go to the polls and cast their ballots without prejudice for the candidate who is best qualified for the job. A study of their past record is the only method by which the candidates may be judged.

What The Baby's Milk Said To Father's Egg About Refrigeration

Electric Refrigeration Is Wise Economy

An electric refrigerator in your home is a true symbol of a high standard of living. It reflects throughout thoughtfulness and care of family health protection. It denotes wise economy and a desire to have conveniences that make for a fuller enjoyment of life.

"For me, electric refrigeration is just the thing. I stay fresh and wholesome even on the hottest days. I like the feeling of certainty that when the baby needs milk, I'll be good and fresh, wholesome and nutritious . . . there's danger when I'm not. You're a good egg, I know how you, too, appreciate constant cold that keeps you strictly fresh for days and days. Electric refrigeration is a big advance in health protection, isn't it?"

All of which is true. . . . Electric refrigeration makes possible constant cold. It keeps food better. They are not subjected to variations in temperature. Perishable foods can be kept fresh and wholesome for days at a time. An electric refrigerator provides quick freezing for ice cubes and frozen deserts. It eliminates waste from spoilage and thus affords means for cutting living costs through quantity buying. An electric refrigerator costs little to operate and is easy to own.

Something for Both Tot and Grown-Up

TWO FROCKS THAT WILL PLEASE WEE LASSIES, AND A CHIC MORNING DRESS FEATURE THIS WEEK'S OFFERINGS

LIKE grown-ups, little girls enjoy parading their finery on these hot summer days, and nothing could be more suitable for them than Nos. 176 and 177, displayed above.

Number 176, a simple yet pretty little frock of fine linen or dotted swiss, is designed in these sizes: Six months, 1, 2 and 3 years. Size 2 requires 1⅞ yards of 29-inch fabric.

Dimity, organdy, and china silk are some materials suggested for these dainty dresses for the tots.

Just as exquisite is Pattern No. 177. Puffed sleeves and a yoke ending in a panel should make this dress a favorite for little sister.

Captivating indeed is the attractive morning frock, No. 146. In a colorful print and with capelet sleeves, pockets, and a contrasting roll collar, this good-looking house dress will help you make light of your kitchen tasks.

Made with either percale or dimity, the design for this model comes in six sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44. Size 38 calls for 3⅝ yards of 32-inch material plus ⅝ yard contrast for the pockets and collar.

State Director At Conference

Old Difficulties In Home Economics Dept. Settled

Miss Lillian Peek, State Director of Vocational Home Economics, was a visitor in W. T. S. T. C. last week. Miss Peek, who was en route to Ft. Collins, Colorado, to give a series of lectures at the Agricultural and Mechanical College, stopped in Canyon for a conference with President J. A. Hill and the faculty of the Home Economics Department about the certificating of home economics majors who graduate from W. T.

Dr. Hill said, "Our graduates have heretofore been penalized by the department at Austin in the matter of certification because, as Miss Peek said, we did not meet certain standards set up by the Vocational Home Economics Board for teacher training. We have contended all the time that our standards were sound, and we had not been able to get together. We worked out a common understanding yesterday, Friday, July 13, whereby this conflict between us and the State Department will be obliviated."

Some changes will be made in the Home Economics Department of W. T. in order to meet the requirements of the State Department.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

We were glad to welcome so many young people to our services Sunday evening. A number have spoken appreciation of Johnnie Hood's fine work. Choir meets Thursdays at 8 o'clock.

We had a call Monday from Bro. Patrick Henry of Fort Worth, State Secretary. The State Board is deeply interested in Canyon.

Don't be too free with your advice because if it is any good, it is too good to give away.

MISS BERRYMAN-HARVEY CASH WED IN KEMP

An account of the Berryman-Cash wedding as given by the Kemp News:

On Tuesday morning, July 10, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hood Berryman was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Mary Berryman and Mr. Harvey Cash were united in marriage in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

The living room was tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers.

The bride, beautifully gowned in white crepe and carrying a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, entered on the arm of the groom to the strains of Mendellshon's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Ira Miller. Rev. E. J. Thompson, childhood pastor of the bride, united their lives with the lovely ring ceremony, closing with an impressive prayer.

Miss Berryman was reared in Kemp, having graduated from the Kemp High School. Her high ideals, womanly and modest ways have won for her the love and admiration of all with whom she has been associated. She left Kemp several years ago and entered the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, and received her degree from this institution, and was instructor in the public schools at Miami, Texas, last year.

Mr. Cash is a graduate of Texas A. and M. College, and is now employed by the Texas Company as an electrical engineer.

Appraisers at Pens Saturday Government Cattle Buying

Appraisers will be at the shipping pens in Canyon all day Saturday, July 21st, to buy cattle from those who have only a few head to sell. This will include owners of town cows as well as farmers.

It seems likely that we will not have a full time appraisal crew after the next few days.

All who expect to sell cattle in small numbers who live near Canyon will please bring them to the pens in Canyon Saturday. Failure to do this will cause delay, as it will not be possible for the appraisers to visit all the places where from one to ten head are for sale.

Cattle should be listed and signed for at the office in the Commissioners' Court room before being offered for sale.

County and District Clerk

I have made every effort to see all of the voters of the county, but have been unsuccessful in many instances. I shall try to see those I have missed before election day, but in spite of all efforts, I shall likely be unable to find all voters.

If I miss you, please take this as a personal invitation to investigate my ability and training for this office, and if you find that I am properly prepared, I shall greatly appreciate your support and vote.

This office of County and District Clerk involves a large amount of painstaking office work. I have had 10 years' training in office work, and dealing with the public. I believe that I understand and appreciate the kind of service which the people expect of their county officials, and am qualified to render this if elected your County and District Clerk.

I shall greatly appreciate your support and vote on July 28th.

S. F. ROSE

Candidate for District Attorney, 47th Judicial District

I have heretofore made a more detailed announcement of my candidacy for district attorney. For those who have not read same, nor met me during the campaign, I desire to say that I am a lawyer of 14 years' continuous experience in all the courts of this State; not previously a candidate for public office, but qualified by training and experience to be your District Attorney. I am a tax paying property owner in your district, a veteran of the World War, affiliated with the Methodist Church, of Scotch-Irish descent, 38 years of age, and am married.

I am making this race on my own merits without advice or support from any political machine, and am obligated to no person or group, lawyer, political machine or otherwise. If elected, my only promise is to give the people of this district an economical, efficient, fair and impartial administration of the affairs of this office without fear or favoritism.

On this basis of merit only I earnestly solicit your support at the coming primary.—Adverstisement.

Wednesday and Thursday nights, July 25 and 26, are the big dates set for the appearance of Leonard Stroud's Rodeo in Canyon. This is the greatest campus activity ever attempted at W. T. S. T. C. and will be sponsored by the Canyon Athletic Club. All proceeds will go toward the building of the fine Buffalo Court.

This rodeo, played to thousands at Palo Duro Park July 4, proved to be a great attraction. The public will be able to take advantage of this reviving of the Old West at the prices of forty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

Under Flood Lights

Under the big foold lights of Buffalo Field, this will be a spectacle worth driving miles to witness. There will be calf roping, bronc riding, steer riding, trick roping, jumping horses, trick and fancy riding, cowboys and cowgirls, wild steers, wild horses, and wild cowboys.

To provide additional fun for the spectators, members of the Physical Education Department of the College will attempt to ride various wild steers.

Stroud to Perform

Spectators will see Leonard Stroud stand on his head and rope four fast horses and riders. Mayme Stroud, world's best all-round horse woman, will perform her daring feats of trick riding. Black Diamond, the world's greatest jumping horse, will jump over an automobile loaded with passengers. Attempts will be made to ride Amarillo Boy, the outlaw that has been ridden only once out of fifty mounts. The wild and wooly West will be at its wildest and woolliest under the floodlights at Buffalo Field. The admission for adults will be forty cents, and for children, twenty-five cents.

Your County Treasurer

MISS OLIVE SCHRAMM

The County Treasurer has many duties besides that of writing checks. Anyone can write a check; but one needs a good knowledge of bookkeeping and accounting to keep the County's Financial records balanced and in good form. I received my commercial training from the Amarillo Business College in 1926.

If re-elected I will give you my undivided time, and my past experience will enable me to do my work more efficiently and economically; because EFFICIENCY IS ECONOMY.

If you want this type of service continued, I will appreciate your vote and support.

Wallace says there has to be a heart trust established to rule over our economic affairs as well as a brain trust designed to devise plans and techniques for a more equitable distribution of economic goods."

All students and faculty members are invited to attend this review.

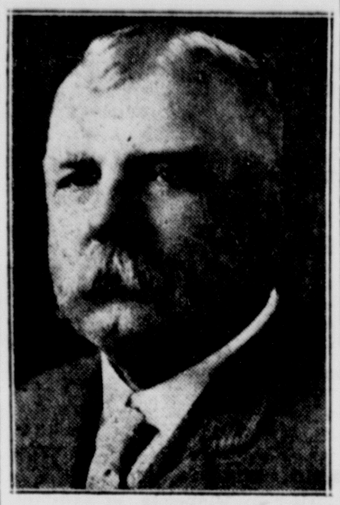
J. J. BAUER FOR RE-ELECTION



J. J. BAUER

County Commissioner J. J. Bauer was called to the bedsides of his brother and his sister in Nebraska Thursday, both of whom are seriously ill. He stated before leaving that he regretted very much being away from home at election time. Mr. Bauer stated that he wished the voters of his precinct to know how greatly he appreciated the honor of having been their County Commissioner in the past, and hoped to be re-elected this year. If he has failed to see any of the voters before leaving, he wishes them to take this message as an invitation for their vote on July 28.

His record as a citizen and a reputable lawyer in the community where he has lived and practiced law for many years is such that every citizen may trust him.

He is 43 years of age; married, father of two children; and has had 17 years of actual experience in the practice of law.

He made this same race four years ago, and carried Potter County by a good majority. His home people, where more than three-fourths of the work of the District Court is done, expressed their confidence in him in the only election he has ever been before them.

We know him and recommend him to the voters of the 47th Judicial District.

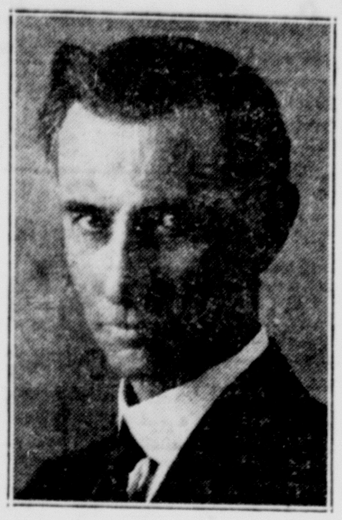
MY RECORD AS COUNTY JUDGE



S. B. Orton

My record in office is my best reference.

Our teachers have been paid; our County debt reduced; our taxes cut; our roads paved; and the Palo Duro Park established.

"Best condition of any county we have worked on," was the auditor's report when he checked the County books for last year.

I do not claim credit for all of these things, but not a single one of them would have been possible without work and cooperation on my part.

If you like the record, vote for me in the coming election.

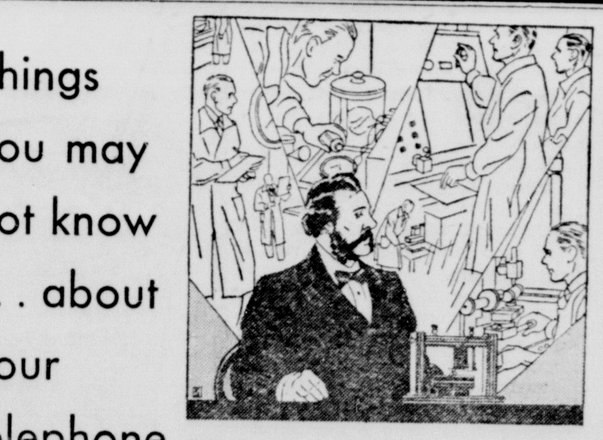
Things you may not know . . . about your telephone



The little group of men who aided Alexander Graham Bell in the invention of the telephone is perpetuated today in many of the policies, and even in the form of organization of the telephone service. Bell himself, the research worker, has for example been succeeded by Bell Telephone Laboratories, whose scientists have contributed innumerable inventions and improvements to the telephone art.

Thomas A. Watson, who made the first telephones, was the forerunner of Western Electric Co., supply unit of the Bell System. From its shops the equipment and supplies needed by the 24 associated Bell companies are furnished at a cost which, as a proven fact, is lower than would be charged on the open market. As a telephone user, you profit indirectly, but definitely, by these savings.

Gardiner G. Hubbard, first business adviser of the infant telephone industry, has been replaced by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., parent organization of the Bell System. A. T. & T. staff experts develop more economical operating methods for the associated companies of the System. Its financing facilities make available, at a saving, funds for necessary additions to telephone lines and equipment.

FOR YOU . . . Good Service at Fair Cost

Not only were the beginnings of the present form of organization of the telephone service, with units for research, for manufacture, for business and financial guidance, to be found in this handful of pioneers . . . the source of many of the policies of the Bell System lies there as well.

Thus, for more than 50 years the savings from a specialized telephone organization have gone, not to swell profits, but to give good telephone service at a fair cost to the user.

This policy has been adopted because we feel that, from your standpoint as much as from our own, it is sound and workable. In an undertaking planned like the telephone service for the long pull, we believe that what is best for the telephone subscriber becomes in the end the course that will bring us the surer, more enduring success.

Increased Numbers Making Use of the Randall Co. Library

The use of the Public Library is increasing each week, according to a statement made by the librarian this week, with an average of 60 people borrowing books or using the reading room each afternoon. Recently Miss Berta Lee Williams has been giving valuable assistance, her services being donated. Several others have given a few hours to the tasks of cataloging, typing cards, arranging magazines and other work.

About thirty new books will be placed on the shelves soon, as a result of the minstrel show sponsored by the Library Club of the College. Miss Tennessee Malone states that of the proceeds of the show, forty per cent went to the performers, and the remainder was divided equally between the college and down town libraries. The books are being selected in reinforced bindings which will be more suitable to the hard wear they will receive. The Library Club, which is composed of students, hopes to give further assistance to the library in the future.

A few weeks ago the Junior Woman's Club decided to conduct a Story Hour for children each Tuesday afternoon, so that mothers could be free to attend the church organization meetings. All children of the town were invited. So many children are attending that it has been necessary to divide them into several groups and to have the stories told and games played on the court house lawn.

Besides hearing the stories and enjoying other children, those who are old enough are learning to use the library. The Junior Woman's Club will continue the story hour throughout the summer.

Asked what she would like best for the library, Miss Fannie Malone, the librarian said, "I would like best to have more people, and especially more country people using the library. If it is used by everyone, it is certain to grow. People who do not have library cards can use the library each afternoon, reading books or magazines. The library is a cool place to spend spare time."

New shelves are being added to make a place for the books which are being received. The reading room, located on the first floor of the court house is open each afternoon from two to five-thirty.

Landers and C. Wooten Retain Tennis Titles

The annual Canyon City Open tennis tournament was completed Sunday afternoon on the college courts. Both events, men's doubles and men's singles, were won by the defending title holders. The only upset was Kendricks' victory over O'Keefe in the semi-final round of singles. LeRoy Landers and Clarence Wooten won the doubles handily, defeating Harrison King and Wallace O'Keefe in the finals. Landers was not extended to win the singles from Kendricks by the score of 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Landers advanced to the finals thru Wooten, who had previously defeated Ed McMinn for the right to play in the semi-finals.

Although the field was not as large as in former years, a number of good players were entered, and the prospects are bright for a good tennis team at the college next year. Clarence Wooten is fast developing into a top notch player, and Charles Donnell is another of next year's team whose play shows considerable promise.

Facts Presented Regarding the Race Horse Betting Bill

A whispering campaign is under way about Senator Small's vote on the horse racing bill. Photostatic copies of pages in the Senate Journal are being exhibited with the statement that on Page 1892 of said Journal, the record shows that he did vote to legalize horse racing in Texas, but no explanation is being offered as to the true facts.

Horse racing was legalized in Texas during the regular sesison of the 43rd Legislature in 1933 by a rider attached to the departmental appropriation bill known as H. B-167. After this bill had passed both houses in the usual course such bills, it was referred to a conference committee to adjust differences between the House and Senate, and when it came out of this committee, it had the horse racing rider on it.

The only action that can be taken on any conference report by either House is to accept or reject. The report did not come up for consideration in the Senate until May 18, 1933, nine days beyond the 120 day limit of a regular session, when every effort was being made to bring about final adjournment.

Under the constitution, all appropriation bills are in effect for only two years and then automatically expire. This particular bill also provided for economies of more than $4,000,000 under a similar bill for the previous biennium. To reject it, meant endless wrangling and indefinite continuation of the legislative session with the added possibility of losing some of these economies. A number of members of both Houses opposed to horse racing voted for the departmental apropriation bill with the horse racing rider attached because of these conditions. This is the vote recorded on Page 1892 of the Senate Journal.

In order to establish horse racing on a more permanent basis and to avoid the two year limitation of the appropriation bill carrying the racing rider, HB-12 was introduced in the First Called session of the 43rd Legislature. This was a bill that dealt directly with horse racing and nothing more.

On pages 312 and 313 of the Senate Journal of the First Called Session of the 43rd Legislature, the record shows that Senator Small voted AGAINST legalization of betting on horse racing both on passage of this bill to third reading and on final passage.

It is also a matter of record that on all other occasions when voting directly on horse racing, he also voted "NO."

Sheffy Tells Rotary Club of Museum Work Done

L. F. Sheffy, field secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club meeting regarding the work he is doing this summer gathering material for the Museum, and memberships to the Society.

Ben F. Berkeley of Alpine, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was introduced to the club and made a short talk. He recalled his happy relations with Senator J. W. Reid and Clyde W. Warwick, while a Representative, and declared that no educator in Texas was greater than Dr. J. A. Hill.

Visitors present were W. A. McIntosh, L. O. Tolzien and Tom Nabors of Amarillo; C. Wedgewood of Snyder; Bob Jarrett, Jr. and Mr. Sheffy.

Bill Warren had charge of the program, as chairman of the Vocational Service committee.

Mr. Sheffy outlined the great interest being taken in the Historical Society. 500 people made a cash donation to build the Museum. 400 people have memberships in the society. 500 people have made donations of articles which are on display. More material is coming every day. Several large cases of Indian relics came Tuesday from Pennsylvania. Another collection came from San Antonio. Interest is spreading rapidly, and materials are coming from every section of the country. 50,000 people have visited the museum in the 18 months it has been opened.

Noted scientists from all over the nation are coming here in large numbers to study the archaeology collection of Floyd Studer. This section has the greatest possibilities of the United States, and the Museum will be the center of these investigations and study.

Mr. Sheffy stated that more money was needed for cases to display the materials. $3.00 is the annual membership and $25.00 is the life membership to the Society.
